| 4 | Flag Bearers | Loxton Mardi Gras | Our 2022 Mardi Gras Flag Bearers are Allan Hucks and Melvin Fielke both volunteers at the Loxton Historical Village. Melvin lived in the Taplan area for most of his life, attended the Concord School and enjoyed the life of farming. Retiring into Loxton in early 1990 with his wife Shirley, his Village career began in 1995 when his farm sold. Allan was born in Eudunda in 1925. He married Wanda in 1946 and late last year, they celebrated their 75th wedding anniversary. Moving to Loxton in 1970 Alan worked as an linesman for the Electric Trust, SA (ETSA). He then retired in 1987 and found his skills very useful at the Village. Both men will receive their Flag Bearers tomorrow at the Appreciation Service at the Rotunda at 8:30am. Thank you Allan and Melvin for your dedicated work at the Village. |
